

NEWS

St John's House is crammed with history, but we're hopeful of uncovering even more very soon. We'll be undertaking some archaeology in the house by removing plaster in specific areas, marked on the plan below, where something of interest may be hidden!

We are nearly there with installing a toilet and will soon need the help of a plumber to make the necessary connections. If you know anyone who might be able to lend a hand then please get in touch. In the meantime the licensee at the now 'Taffys' pub at the bottom of the hill is happy for visitors to use their facilities.

We can now be contacted by telephone - you can reach us on 07510 248315, which is an answerphone. Don't forget that you can also get in touch with us on Facebook and Twitter, too!

OPEN DOORS

We are taking part in CADW's 'Open Doors' event this coming Saturday 29th September. Our doors will indeed be open from 10.30am – 4pm.

A number of re-enactors will be joining us including a Tudor Physician, Herbalist and Medieval Archers, as well as activities for young and old alike, such as Lucet, finger loop braiding and marchpane subtleties. Marchpane was the Tudor and Jacobean forerunner of marzipan.
